“So very sorry and surprised to learn of Joy's passing. We loved her playing at the Presbyterian Church in Bisbee, Arizona. We were always disappointed the times we went and missed her. Our sympathies to her family. Rest in peace, Joy. Patrick and Diane More of Vernon Texas and Tombstone Arizona.”

“I send my sympathy to the family. We met in the School of Nursing and maintained our friendship. I highly respect the writing Joy did; my husband and I went to a church event where she played as a musician; I valued reading her emails from AZ and the initiatives she took in her journey in life; Joy, Judy and I would always meet in recent years for dinner and sharing when she returned to Omaha yearly. She died early; parts of her life will continue helping others heal. Her Being is missed. There are so many strengths of how she forged her life journey upon which I reflect. She made this world a better place by how she carved her journey. We bless the universe for her, her many gifts to us, and her Being. In you grief, may all of these strengths be remembered. Regards...Beth Furlong”
