love you grandpa this is G3

Cathy Taylor - November 02, 2019 at 09:02 AM

“ I remember no matter where we were at a restaurant or just walking around how little kids would always run up to him wanting to talk to "Santa" and he would always let them sit on his lap and ask them what they wanted! You will be missed by many. I LOVE YOU Uncle “ Your sisters love you and miss you very much. We are happy that we got to spend the time with you that we did. You never complained about celebrating your birthday twice a year since mom could never remember the actual date.

Love you always,
Susie, Caroline, and Kathy

“ You have been in my life for 20 years, you raised me like one of your children. We may have butted heads from time to time but I love you more than ever. I don't know who I would be without your guidance. I love you so much grandpa, and no mater what you will always be the best father I could have asked for. I love you Dad with everything and thank you for always beliving in me in everything and I promise to make you proud every second of everyday. Whenever I play my instruments, sing, or act it will all be so you can still see it. I love you Dad and say hi to everyone for me ❤️❤️
