“ Steve, Roger, Matt, Jean and families,
We are so sorry that we are not able to make the trip for Gerrie's funeral services. We always remember her with that sweet smile and a mischievous twinkle in her eye, fun-loving and full of life. Praying for God's comfort and peace for you all.
With love and hugs,
Rich and Kathy

“ My sincerest condolences to Gerrie's family. I've known Gerrie my entire life and my memories could fill an encyclopedia. My favorite is begging and pleading with Gerrie to go on a blind date with the brother of an acquaintance. She finally broke down and agreed to go. That young fellow's name was Duane Dethlefs. I think that date turned out rather well, don't you? Gerrie and I have kept in touch all these many years and I will miss her tremendously. God bless you and keep you in His care. Your friend, Kathleen
