“*Dear Karen Rae & Family,
Words seem inadequate to express the sorrow felt by the loss of Kenny Soll. Hold tight to all the memories (good & bad, happy & sad) for comfort, lean on your friends and family for strength, and always remember how much you are loved. May the comfort of God help you through this difficult time. I know it has been a very tough year for you. May Angel's walk with you today and always. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. If I can help you at this very sad time, Please know I am here for you!!!
Love you always, Annie*”
