“ August, 2020.

Hello Marilyn in Heaven. I was going through old boxes and found only a few letters I had saved. Ones that felt important. And one of them was yours from 1996. So I looked you up to call only to find you have passed on. I hope I replied to your wonderful letter back then. But tonight I'll do my best to reconnect in Spirit. Much love to you always, Kat

“ "I am so sad to learn of her passing almost a year later. Only met her once. I met "Tiny" (as I remember her) in 1976 when I had visited Fort Calhoun with my Grandpa. She was my Grandmother's (Virginia "Peggy" (Miller) Jipp) cousin. Her dad and my Great Grandma (Maud Gladys aka Virginia) were siblings. In my search through old pictures of my Grandma's I found a photo of her taken when they must have come to California for a visit. I have fond memories of my visit, riding her horse "Rainey" and the attacked of her rooster (which we had a chicken dinner later that day). Rest in peace. Distant cousin Alisha (Peggy's granddaughter)"
