“ Marti was kind, caring and funny. She always made us feel part of her family. I met her at PCM through my wife, Janet, who had known Julie and the Thibaults for years. Marti and Red were so fun to be around. Marti was a gracious host to us and our children and she will be dearly missed. Rob Laughlin

“ Marti was such a warm and wonderful person. I've known her for as long as I can remember and she and her family were such a positive part of my childhood. I enjoyed stopping by and talking with her when I was back visiting. She was so proud of her family and it was fun to get updates on how everyone was doing and hear stories from her youth about growing up on her family farm. And when our conversations would turn more serious, she would channel her grief into empathy and concern for others - it was such a caring approach and I try to model my own behavior after hers. My heart goes out to her family. I love and miss her dearly.
