“ "On July 15th, 1944 an angel was born, she faced trials, tribulations and triumphs. She possessed beauty, compassion, dignity, integrity, and grace in every step of her journey here on earth never letting anything compromise her resolve. She leaves behind her legacy love in all of her children and her grandchildren. The Lord above gave her to us for a time but now he has called her home saying "It is my turn to have time with this angel". I will miss her smile and laughter, the funny way she pronounced certain words, the way she always asked "how's my angel" whenever I called her on the phone, but most of all the way she said "I love you!" I will miss you Mamma and I love you so very much!!!!"

“ "Mom, On February 13th 1974 you brought me into this world. From the moment I saw your angelic face I fell in love with you. You made this life easy to grow up in by holding my hands and guiding through this world. Your generosity, devotion and commitment are forever imbedded in my soul. Now I know what you wanted me to do in this life. To be a man who places his family's wellbeing above all else. To love them unconditionally, without favoritism, and a heart as true as yours. I love you Mamma and I always will!!!!"

“Mother, you always had a way to put a smile on our faces but no smile on earth was as warming, uplifting and beautiful as yours! We shared so much mom, talking on the phone or in person, sharing our feelings, crying and laughing together. I will miss your laugh mom, your hugs and the kisses that we shared so many times. I always loved how big your heart was. Your heart will always live in us mom. You always put your children first often going without to see to it that we had what was needed. Crying in secret when you thought we couldn't hear or laughing out loud with sincerity and conviction. I love you MOM! and I always will.”
