“Mary, what a fine lady you are. I bet Lou was right there to meet you. This earthly world lost a very special person, but heaven gained a keeper. To the family, I am so very sorry for your loss. Losing that interaction with the person who loved you all, and she really did love all of you, is always painful. But she taught faith. And with that faith comes the understanding that she is probably watching over you all. Mary, thank you for being a small part of my life, because you sure made a big impression.”

“Mary seemed to know firsthand that God is Love. Her arms embraced all she came into contact with. She knew how to grow love on the farm, at the dinner table, on the door frames where initials marked us all as belonging. I have been touched by her love through her family, in their own lives as Love grows through all they do to be faithful to their hearts, to the needs of others, bringing more people to love. I am grateful for the gift, the fun, and the example. I pray that God will find new ways to shine Grace on the Sully family.”
